Representative from the Permanent Mission of the Dominican Republic to the United Nations

A motivational documentary about the first Dominican expedition to reach the summit of Mount Everest. It shows climbers Iván Gómez, Karim Mella and Federico Jovine on their way to put their beloved flag at the highest in the world. In parallel, the film tells the story of three youths in the rural area of the country who decide to climb the highest mountain in the Caribbean: Pico Duarte. These two stories remind us that from the sea to the sky, everyone has a dream and their own mountain to climb.
